WOULD WIN THE SOUTH

TAFT'S AMBITION IS TO INTRO-DUCE REPUBLICANISM INTO SUNNY DIXIE LAND

IN EXCHANGE FOR NORTH

Democracy is Gaining in the Northern States and the Next President After a Break into the Solid South, Whose Voting Strength for Democracy is Greatly Displeasing to Him. No Chance for Success.

Washington, Dec. 18.—There has been a lot of discussion among members of Congress, especially members from Southern states, of the interview given out by President-elect Taft, in which he declared it would be one of the great ambitions of his administration to win over the South to the cause of the Republican party.
There is a very wide difference of opinion as to the chances of success in Judge Taft's favor, but everyone agrees the experiment will be well worth watching.

Southern Senators and Representatives, for reasons which are apparent, are not disposed to discuss Mr. Taft's project for publication, but their views on the subject are generally pronounced. There is one important point which they are almost unanimous in making. The South is not Democratic because the civil war was fought, they declared, nor because the slaves were freed. Many of the reasons why the South remains steadfast in its Democracy, it was contended, are present and largely local, but if there is a reason which has its root in history, it may be found in the Republican party's sins of Reconstruction.

The South, declare these men whom the South sends to represent her in the halls of Congress, has forgiven and is trying to forget the horrors and sufferings of the war, has forgiven the loss of her slaves and other property, but she finds it impossible to forget and hard to forgive the outrages of Reconstruction days.

A prominent Senator from one of the Southern states, suggested that if the Republican party wants to win the South away from Democracy it could take no better preliminary step than by moving for the repeal of the Fifteenth amendment to the Federal constitution, which conferred the effective franchise on the then recently freed bondsmen. It is true that many of the Southern states have found a way to take most of the sting out of this amendment, but the South is and always will be resentful that it should be a part of the organic law of the land.

One Democratic Senator who can see no possibility for success for the Taft ambition called attention to the fact that the Ohio platform of this year, which presumably had Judge Taft's endorsement, called for the enforcement of that clause of the Fourteenth amendment to the constitution relating to apportionment of representation in Congress and which provides that "when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state."

Democratic members of Congress are not lacking, however, who believe Judge Taft has a reasonable foundation in probability for the hope that he may be able to break into the solid Democracy. They point out that the Democratic party made large gains in the north in the recent election, particularly as regards state officials, and they see in this a breaking down of the old spirit of partisanship, and believe there may be some hope for Mr.
Taft's ideas, as well as some hope of the Democratic party breaking into the states hitherto solidly Republican in the North.

Despite the overwhelming defeat of their candidate for President, Democratic members of Congress are an exceedingly cheerful lot. The gains they made in the House and the election of Democratic governors in several Northern states, has convinced them that the Democratic party is not quite ready for the undertaker, despite the obituary notices which have been written. They are bold enough, even, to predict that the day is not distant when a Democrat will again sit in the White House and deal out fat government jobs to the long-famished faithful of the party.

Another reason why Democratic members of Congress find it possible to look cheerful even in adversity is that they are not seriously affected by President Roosevelt's order placing fourth-class postmasters under the protecting mantle of the civil service law. They profess to believe that the loss of this patronage to Republican members will gain them a few more seats in the House, and if the truth must be told, there are Republican members who quite agree with them.
Of course, should a Democratic president come into power, Democratic members of Congress would be the heavy sufferers by reason of the order; but that is borrowing trouble, something Democrats have no need of doing.

STATE BANK IN OHIO MAKES AN ASSIGNMENT
Napoleon, Ohio, Dec. 16.—The Citizens State Bank has assigned to D. D.
Donovan. The failure is said to have been caused by poor loans and it is also said that it was brought about by the failure of German Insurance Company.

The Citizens Bank was considered a strong institution and as a result of the assignment great excitement prevails.

Cashier Defaults with $85,000 Washington, Dec. 16.—A defalcation of $85,000 has been discovered in the First National Bank of Somersworth, New Hampshire. The cashier has been arrested and the directors of the bank have asked for bank examiners to take possession of the bank, with a view to voluntary liquidation. The district bank examiner says the bank has undivided profits of $25,000 and he considers the institution solvent, but the directors declare they are unable to restore the impaired capital. The capital is $100,000 and the deposits under $200,000.

The Cashier Arrested
Somersworth, N. H., Dec. 16.—Fred M. Varney, cashier of the First National Bank, of Somersworth, was arrested here today charged with embezzlement.

Notice to Democratic Voters.

11, 1909.

We, the undersigned, Committeemen of Justice Precinct No. 1, composed of Election Precincts 1 and 2 of Chaves county, N. M., do hereby call a convention of democrats to be held at the County court house on Satur-

PROSECUTOR STATES CASE IN THE HAINES TRIAL.

Flushing, L. I., Dec. 16.—The theory of the states case was outlined today to the jury in the trial of Thornton J.
Haines for the killing of William T.
Annis. It is that the defendant was the master-mind and the leader in the expedition to the Bayside Yacht Club to encompass the death of Annis. All through the presentation of the States case, the special prosecutor declared he would show Thornton Haines had led the way and had full knowledge of the plan to kill Annis. A witness, Ed Andrews, a member of the Club, stated he saw Captain Haines shoot Annis several times, and that Thornton drove him off with a revolver as he sought to stop the shooting. The police state that John Tanning, the Swedish boatman who knocked the pistol from Captain Haines' hand, and is wanted as a witness by the prosecution, cannot be found.

The testimony that Thornton J.
Haines drew a revolver and drove back those that sought to aid William E. Annis while Peter C. Haines, jr., was firing at Annis as he sat in his boat at the Bayside Yacht Club, developed today from the evidence of C. A. Burthelme, called as one of the State's principal witnesses. This evidence is said by the prosecution to support Gravame's charge that Thornton Haines was the principal and aided his brother in slaying Annis.

SALVATION ARMY HAS KETTLE ON THE STREET
The following letter to the public has been issued by the commandant of the local corps of the Salvation Army:

Dear Friend:—The Army lassie will not stop at your door with a basket because you are sure of a good Christmas meal, but your help is needed to make it possible for her to leave baskets at needy homes in this city, and to carry on the regular winter's work.

The cases are investigated so that we know the people receiving the dinners are worthy. Will you not join in making bright some home this Christmas season?

The Army's ability and willingness to do the work thoroughly and systematically is so well known that I do not need to take your time to go into detail. The kettle is on the street, so it will be easy for you to drop your contribution in as you go by and help "keep the pot boiling" and help in this worthy work.

I am, very truly yours,
M. I. Henderson, Captain.
